

Occupational Skills Programme: Assessment Practitioner

SP ID: SP-220320, NQF 5, 30 Credits, Accredited with QCTO

Knowledge Modules:

- Assessment principles and practices

Practical Modules:

- Plan and conduct the assessment of learner competencies

Workplace Module:

- Conduct assessments of learner competence

Compulsory FISA:

- (Final Integrated Supervised Assessment) The FISA is conducted through the Skills Development Provider. The FISA is a final written assessment integrating the relevant exit level outcomes.

Workplace Support:

To ensure the success of the workplace modules, we kindly request that your organisation designate a workplace mentor for the learner. This mentor will play a crucial role in overseeing the learner's progress and validating their practical experience logbook.

- Capacity to provide experiential L&D opportunities to the learner in all the areas listed within the scope of this skills programme.
- Experiential L&D opportunities can be available in a specific workplace.
- Subject matter expert to provide support and guidance to the learner through formal employment relations.
- Workplace MOU to be completed by the employer

Date: 16 – 19 September 2025

Duration: 4 Days

Venue: Online

Time: 09:00 – 16:00

Price: R7 500.00 Excl VAT

PoE Cost: R2 600.00 Excl VAT

All online courses are subject to minimum delegate numbers

The purpose of this skills programme is to prepare a learner to plan for, conduct and administer assessment of learner competence in an occupational context.

Assessment skills in practice is the basis of many other qualifications and skills sets and is a skill that leads to employability. This skills programme will equip people to be able to supervise performance and provide feedback in a professional manner.

Assessment Practitioner status can lead to self-employment opportunities. This skills programme is for people with an interest in using assessment tools to promote learning.

MINIMUM ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- NQF Level 4 with Communication